OVERCOMING

AFFIRMATIONS BY PROPHET RICHARD AMOAYE

A 30 day journey of inspired prophetic affirmations that draw on the word of God. Designed to help you reflect, pray and meditate on the word so you remain focused on God's goodness and who He has made you to be. Expect to be refreshed and strengthened as you lean in on the word and openly declare your trust in God.

Keep an eye out for the release of this gem that will help you align yourself to see good, praise Him and testify about who He is!

Out Now!!!

editor.

Pst. Hero Udenyi

Awesome! It is officially winter here in Australia, and from the Prophetic Voice Magazine, welcome to the month of June 2023. That also means we are halfway done with our year of testimony, 2023. In this last lap of the year, we pray that your testimonies will be delivered to you in the name of Jesus Christ.

Some individuals have openly testified, while others may still be uncertain or deficient in this aspect. Our father, the Prophet, has consistently emphasized that the word of God is abundant, particularly in our ministry, God's Power Ministries, where God not only speaks but is always active. Before the year runs out you will take delivery of your testimonies in the name of Jesus Christ.

The substantive is based on the ministration given by our Mother titled Behold during the Women's Conference, 2023. Our mother gave a profound exposition on the word behold that would give you the right perspective that could secure your testimony if you obeyed stricto-senso.

There are other equally exciting articles on testimonies crafted by reputable contributors to bless you. We also have real people and real testimony corners, which is the most exciting page in this magazine.

On this note, I welcome you to the June edition of the Prophetic Voice Magazine. Please take time out, relax and read; you will indeed be blessed in the name of Jesus Christ, the resurrected Lord. As you do this, God richly bless you.

Your feedback is always important; please let us know how best to improve it and help you reach your full potential in God.

FROM OUR FOUNDER

Beloved,

Welcome to 2023! We thank God whose unending grace, mercy and compassion sustained us over the past year. Now, we get to celebrate and welcome a new season.

God has been faithful and too good to us. We cannot help but sing Him praise and we continue to worship Him, not because of what He continues to do, but because of who He is. Consistent. Dependable and the one who first loved us and sent His son Jesus to redeem us.

2023 is our year of Testimonies! The year in which waves of His Glory sweep through and bring forth what His word has set to accomplish in every dimension of our lives. It is not the year to remain silent. It is the year to proclaim, to praise and testify of His Goodness.

In Matthew 10:32, Jesus said, “Whoever acknowledges me before others, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven.” This reminder and great reassurance is one I would like to encourage you to hold on to. No matter what troubles or challenges 2023 throws your way, stand strong, declare who He is and testify. Continue to walk and war with great expectation, believing that He will see us through until His word comes to pass.

We will hold onto His word, knowing that He promised in Psalms 71: 17-24 to increase our honour and comfort us once more despite the troubles we may encounter.

In this year, let your tongue be like the pen of a skilful writer. As you proclaim and testify of His marvellous deeds, may you let the world and the next generations know of His power and His mighty acts.

Remember, expectation is the womb of the manifestation of His word. So prepare your heart, mind and body to praise him. Get ready to declare His word and testify in spite of. As you do may God acknowledge and remember you. May the waves of his Glory wash over you and yours.

Calvary Blessing,
Richard Amoaye

WHAT YOU BEHOLD... YOU WILL HOLD

BY HERO UDENYI

Introduction

As members of God's Power Ministries, we need not be reminded that this year's focus is to have a visible and tangible encounter with the word of God for an undeniable testimony because the prophet of God, our Father, has received from God and declared this year as "Our Year of Testimonies". Pursuant to this declaration, some have testified openly, while others may still be unsure or lacking in this area. The Prophet has always emphasised that the word of God is not scarce, especially in our ministry, and that God is always at work. However, the question is, what do you see? Do you see the works of men or the works of God? What you behold is what you can hold in the end.

Behold!

The women's conference has ended, but its impact remains vivid and strong. The conference's theme, "Behold", was designed to help refocus your attention on what is important in the process of testimony. Our substantive for this month is based on the theme of the conference, Behold, as expounded during the conference by the main speaker, our mother, Reverend Patrice Amoaye. The theme was taken from the Book of (Isaiah 43:19), which reads

Keep the fire of your testimony of the restored gospel and your witness of our Redeemer burning so brightly that our children can warm their hands by the fire of your faith. - Boyd K. Packer thus, “Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert”. It is clear that the word Behold is the anchor word in the scripture, as cited. So, to translate what God is saying here, the word Behold must be understood in the context of this scripture.

The Meaning of Behold.

The word “Behold” literally means to pay attention, observe, or see something with rapped attention and intention. It always draws attention to significant matters and emphasises the importance of what follows. In the context of use, the word “Behold” introduces extraordinary, miraculous, or awe-inspiring subjects, prompting contemplation of their profound message. It is meant to captivate and engage the reader or listener by urging them to focus on a specific subject or event, carrying a sense of wonder.

However, it is important to acknowledge that the term “Behold” bears a much deeper significance in the workings of the spirit and spirituality than just the act of “seeing” as it may be commonly perceived. In the Holy Scriptures, the words “look,” “see,” and “behold” are frequently used in various contexts. Nevertheless, the word “Behold” consistently conveys the tangible proof of God’s word. This is evident in two notable examples. Firstly, in (Genesis 22:13), you will learn that Abraham “looked and then he beheld” a ram caught in a thicket by its horns, which he then offered as a burnt offering in place of his son. This instance clearly demonstrates how “Behold” reveals the manifestation of God’s promise. Secondly, in John 1:29, John the Baptist uses the word “Behold” to proffer Jesus as the “Lamb of God” who takes away

Scripture:

“Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.” – Isaiah 43:19 the sin of the world. This same context of “see” and “behold” is also applied in this instance, signifying the concrete evidence that Jesus is the fulfilment of God’s promise. So, whenever the word Behold is used, it connotes a revelation that would unveil when attention is given to God’s spoken, written word.

Explanations

The main speaker, Reverend Patrice Amoaye, our mother, spoke on the theme; “Behold” during the first day of the Women’s Conference, 2023. She prophetically explained the practical meaning of the word “Behold” and how it applies to the current season of testimony. According to her, there are times when all you need to do is observe and be aware of your surroundings. Instead of constantly striving for success and getting little or no results, you must follow the direction of the season. The scripture records that there is a time and a season for everything under the earth. Therefore, in this season of testimonies, it is important to align yourself with the purpose of the season. It is not a season

“As long as the earth
endures,
seedtime and harvest,
cold and heat,
summer and winter,
day and night
will never cease.”
- Genesis 8:22

to do anything else but a season to shift your perspective to see what ordinary eyes might not be able to see. When you see what everyone sees, you do what they do and get the result that they will get. It is a season to position according to what you see and re-align according to the prophetic declaration for this year, which is our year of testimonies. You must be intentional with your sight and what you see with the sight. In that scripture in Isaiah, God is urging you to behold what He is doing. To pay attention, observe, or see meditatively what God is doing and not what the enemy is doing. It is the season to manifest testimonies by paying more attention to the prophetic words than the perplexing world. The mystery in this word, 'behold', is that whatever one beholds will become. Because behold is not only to see with ordinary eyes but also to see with spiritual eyes and an attitude of meditation. When and until you begin to see the prophetic words and declarations meditatively, you might not be able to substantiate or materialise the word. (1 John 1:14) “And the word became flesh.”

Practicalities

(Genesis 15:1- 6), “After these things, the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield and exceeding great reward. And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus? And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir. And behold, the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, this shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine, heir. And he brought him forth abroad, and said, look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, so shall thy seed be. And he believed in the Lord, and it was counted to him for righteousness”.

The preceding scripture aptly describes what features in the day-to-day relationship with the prophetic words. It is common to be consumed by what can be physically perceived, forgetting that the words received came from a higher power above all. This was the case for Abraham, who heard God’s promises but spoke out of frustration, doubting their possibility based on what he saw on the ground. However, God intervened and corrected his perspective. Speaking during the conference, our mother underscored the importance of refocusing perspective on the surroundings to focus on the fidelity of the word of God. She emphasised the need to shift the focus away from the surroundings and instead look towards the heavens to see what God is doing in our lives. In the scriptures, Abram was fixated on what he saw on the ground rather than the words from above. God redirected Abram's focus and asked him to look up and contemplate. This should prompt you to reflect on your own contemplation and perspective. What occupies your thoughts? What do you meditate on? Abraham's use of faith-filled eyes allowed him to see what God was saying, and he believed, which was counted unto him for righteousness. Faith is instantly ignited within when you fix your gaze on the right thing in your prophetic words, leading you to the realm of all possibilities. But how?

(Joshua 1:8) reads, "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success". This Scripture could complement the scripture in (Isaiah 43:19), "Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert". Because the active ingredient of the world beholds is to look attentively in contemplation and meditation until we can hold what we behold. And that is the nexus between these two scriptures. What You meditate on day and night will eventually make you.

(2 Corinthians 3:7) reads, "But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord". So, you

"This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success" – Joshua 1:8

are transformed into whatever you behold constantly. This means that to behold is not just to gaze at something but to continually dwell on a matter with absolute contemplation and meditation. It means to tarry on the word until it becomes tangible in your life. It is about undistracted attention on the Word until you can see it formed in your mind as an image-nation and subsequently manifest same in the physical; like (John 1:14) would say, “the Word became flesh and dwelt amongst us, and we beheld Him as the only begotten of the Father”.

How can you behold the word of God, which you cannot see with your ordinary eyes? As a Christian, you are a being of faith. You live by faith and not by sight. So, if you live by faith, it means you are a being of faith. And if you are a being of faith, you must see with the eyes of faith and not the eyes of flesh. The apostle Paul puts this succinctly in (Ephesians chapter 1:18), when he said, “The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what the hope of his calling is, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints”. To behold, you tune into the realms of the power of the word of God with the eyes of the spirit called in the book of Ephesians as the eyes of your understanding.

Conclusions:

Isaac Newton, one of the most respected scientists and a professed and practising Christian, reportedly said, “If I have ever made any valuable discoveries, it has been owing more to patient attention than to any other talent”. This introduced another perspective into the meaning of the word behold, “patient attention with the mind and intention to understand. Give attention to your prophetic words, be patient in your contemplation, and desire to know and become; the word will direct you. 2023, your testimony is already guaranteed, but how many shall claim and manifest the same? (Numbers 23:19), “God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: Hath, he said, and shall he not do it? Or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good”? You shall testify, only behold, and believe.

COMMITMENT THAT LED TO LIFE TRANSFORMATION

to support my family back home in South Africa.

While living in Melbourne, I was privileged to meet the Prophet of God. So, after relocating to Sydney a few years ago, I made it my top priority to locate the Church and have been attending regularly since. To the glory of God, shortly after, I got an aged care job I had sought for years. Despite some challenges, God has been helping me through them all. Apart from that, in one of the programs at the main Church at Wetherill Park, I was picked out by the Prophet and ministered to, after which there was an open door for an all-expenses paid trip to Japan. But that was the beginning of my breakthrough in many areas.

BY NAPSI

Before moving to Sydney, I lived in Melbourne, where I earned my aged care certificate in 2016. Despite my efforts to secure a job in that field for a year, I was unsuccessful, even with the assistance of a Centrelink Job seeker agent. Eventually, I had to settle for a highly challenging cleaning job, and I endured it for nearly three years

...I told some people there who were also waiting, "It is happening; who will be calling me at 8 pm on a Saturday for a job I have sought without success".

However, I recently participated in a one-day prayer conference at the Penrith Campus of the Church in St. Marys. During the session, we declared that we would hear good news. At the program, I experienced a profound sense of peace and connection. Additionally, I was located and prayed upon, which brought me immense joy.

After the program, I was outside waiting for someone to give me a lift and right outside there, at about 8 pm, I started receiving phone calls for jobs without interviews. I was shocked! Who would call someone at 8 PM on a Saturday to offer a job? In my excitement, I told some people there who were also waiting, "It is happening; who will be calling me at 8 pm on a Saturday for a job I have sought without success". I thought it was a joke. As if that was not enough, that same night, my 19years old son, who has gotten me very worried because sometimes he goes into a rebellious mode, locking himself up and switching off his phone for months and refusing to talk to anyone, woke me up with a call to tell me, "Mommy, I am okay now". This was very emotional for me because it has been a very challenging situation with him.

Since that program, it has been an open floodgate of good news, some of which I am still processing. Now, I have been offered three Jobs with excellent conditions, but most of all, I've been healed emotionally, spiritually, physically, and in every way possible! Unlike before I joined this church, my life is so beautiful now. This is a miracle, and I can confidently say God is truly working in this place and changing lives. I am a witness, and this is my testimony.

I thank God almighty, and I thank the Prophet of God and his pastors for the great work. God bless you all.

We live in a time where we are most enlightened, educated and have the resources to live satisfied life's yet a lot of us live without hope. Our enlightenment fails in offering real solutions for many of the hopelessness we see in our world. This is because most of the issues that confront us have their source in the spiritual realm. As such, we need to be equipped to deal with the root causes instead of the symptoms. PROPHETIC ATMOSPHERE is designed not only to create an atmosphere conducive for possibilities but also empowers us to identify, disrupt and diffuse the enemy's agendas; and enforce God's will in our lives, families and world.
