JOY COMES IN THE MORNING By PROPHET RICHARD AMOAYE

This devotional speaks to finding substantive joy from living an intentional life that is centre around purpose and the fulfilment of your assignment.

In arguably the most difficult season where the author lost both parents, he still found love peace and joy. It was a joy that came from a place where only God can be, a joy that is deeply rooted in a relationship with Christ. An unchanging and unwavering joy.

Expect to be inspired and revived as you read through each day!

Amazing, we are already in May. Our prayers are that God, the creator of the ends of the Earth and the supreme king, make perfect all things that concern you in this highly prophetic month.

We have been looking at the supernatural topic from different perspectives to understand the very depth of the supernatural and what that portends for us as humans and God's children. In this edition, we are looking mainly at access through prayers and the results that can be procured and secure in the natural.

The substantive focuses on the place of prayers in accessing the supernatural, and the rest of the articles streams from there into other areas of the supernatural. The writers diligently worked to bring out the best for your reading pleasure and vital information. As usual, every piece here is so proficiently knitted together for a most delightful reading experience for everyone and indeed anyone.

We gladly welcome you to the May edition of the Prophetic Voice Magazine. This edition is a cocktail of interesting reads on the supernatural, blended with some amazing testimonies of real people with supernatural results and so much more. We employ you to take some time to read and think about the information provided, and your life will be transformed for the better. May God richly bless you.

Thank you.

The Centrality of Prayer To the Supernatural

By Pastor Hero Udenyi

“At every level, there is a devil. And a part-time Christian cannot defeat a full-time devil.”

- Prophet Richard Amoaye.

“The principal weapon of spiritual warfare is prayer. Not just routine or mediocre prayer, but prayer powerful enough to move God’s hand to determine the destiny of a whole nation” - Peter Wagner.

“Prayer influences God. The ability of God to do for man is the measure of the possibility of prayer” - E.M. Bounds.

“And so, there is a higher order than the natural man, and God wants to bring us into this higher order, where we will believe Him” - Smith Wigglesworth.

“At every level, there is a devil, and a part-time Christian cannot defeat a full-time devil” - Prophet Richard Amoaye.

A lot has been said about the supernatural in our preceding editions. But permit me to add that the supernatural is a vast and multi-dimensional reality beyond all imaginations and the scope of all living. It is a known fact that everything in the natural realm is fixed. However, there are no limitations or impossibilities in the supernatural; only fluidity and your vehicle of access determine the shape of your result. Therefore, in the supernatural, anything is possible.

When humanity interfaces with the supernatural, it is called an encounter. Most times, these encounters are accidental or by way of coincidence. Notwithstanding, there are ways by which humans interface deliberately with the supernatural to deploy the desired result intentionally. Every religion on earth is based on a supernatural encounter. So, different religions teach different means of accessing the supernatural to one advantage or the other. This could be by means of incantations, meditations, enchantments, songs, dances, spiritual decrees, declarations, etc. But for us Christians, our religion is based on a relationship with God through the Lord Jesus and rooted in faith.

What is Prayer?

Billy Graham of blessed memory defined prayer as spiritual communication between a person and God. He stated that in this two-way relationship, a person should talk to God and listen to Him. Finally, Billy Graham also stated that prayer to God is like a child's conversations with his father.

The Christian dictionary defines prayer as a conversation with God, the intercourse of the soul with God, not in contemplation or meditation, but direct address to him. Prayer may be oral or mental, occasional, constant, extempore, or formal.

The Centrality of Prayer for Supernatural

In the Bible, Abraham had many supernatural encounters. In one such encounter, he asked God through

PRAYER..

"They cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distress" (Psalm 107:6). John Wesley and a Mr Hopper prayed using God's word, and almost instantly, the wind ceased, the storm stopped, and the clouds dispersed.

prayers for the fruit of the womb. He was able to deploy the desired result to the effect that even when there was no substance in both himself and the wife, according to the natural laws for them to bring forth a child, yet by the direction of the supernatural, at the age of 100 years, they brought forth a son named Isaac. This is an example of the supernatural power over the natural conditions of the body through prayers.

On July 23, 1750, John Wesley was on a trip on a ship. A terrible storm arose, and the ship was tossed about in the dark among rocks and sands. John Wesley found out that they were in a vehement gust of wind, thunder, and rain, which brought the sailors to their wit's end. The ship had no goods on board, so it rolled as if it would capsize at any moment. It was intensely dark, and neither the captain nor anyone else knew where they were, except that they were tossing in a wrong, narrow channel full of shoals, rocks, and sands.

In the midst of all that, John Wesley remembered a scripture that says, "They cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distress" (Psalm 107:6). John Wesley and a Mr Hopper prayed using God's word, and almost instantly, the wind ceased, the storm stopped, and the clouds dispersed. This is an example of supernatural power over the weather via prayer.

Prayer is central to all these awesome results. However, prayer has become a significant burden for many Christians and churches today. This is also why we are not recording the outstanding testimonies we heard of in those days. The portals of the supernatural are closed to many Christians because of prayerlessness. Prophet Amoaye has always said, "where there is a man to pray, there is a God to answer".

Prophet Amoaye, in his teaching titled the Centrality of Prayers, cited the scripture, "Submit yourself then to God, resist the devil, and he will flee from you" (James 4:7). The devil is resisted only in the place of prayers. Prayer is what connects a person to the power line of God. The law of the supernatural is straightforward; the more you pray, the more powerful you become in the realm of the spirit and the more results you could deploy to the earth plains.

“Every Christian is expected to be an agent of the supernatural. As long as the things seen are made out of those that cannot be seen, we must depend on the unseen to sustain the seen with progressive ideas and results in the seen world. ”

It is written, “Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour” (1 Peter 5:8-9). Whether you like it or not, the enemy is going about and around seeking whom he may destroy, and no natural human is a match to his adversities.

Every battle is won and lost from the air because the heavens rule over the earth (Daniel 4:26). Therefore, to win these battles of life, you must deploy air power and have a supernatural advantage. A natural man must access the supernatural and take control of things from there to deploy this. Prayer, therefore, is the only means whereby an ordinary person can influence the supernatural to advance an advantage on the earth. This underpins the centrality of prayers to the supernatural.

Prophet Amoaye posited that it is only with prayers we can put a strong resistance against the onslaught of the forces of the dark kingdom by deploying supernatural advantage in the affairs of men. In his teaching, he explained that to resist the devil effectively; we must:

- 1. Submit ourselves to God (James 4:7). Submission must be a way of life not just in words but also in posture. To submit to God means one must be in the same frequency with Him. This is only possible when we are in tune with His word and compliance with His will. Submission is compliance with the word of God. You are only as strong as your knowledge of God. The more of God's word we have within us, the more of God and His will for us we know and the more courageous we become in the place of prayers. The only thing stronger than Satan is knowledge because Satan dwells in ignorance. Therefore, you cannot beat Satan in his own game by being ignorant as he is the lord of darkness (Genesis 1:1-4, John 1: 1- 6). According to these scriptures, what overcame darkness was light, so if we want to overcome the devil, we must defeat him by the same light, i.e. Illumination or understanding (John 1:1-6). Paul's words in 2 Corinthians 2:11 make us understand that Satan's advantage over the children of God is their ignorance. We need to shelve ignorance as advised in Proverbs 4:7b "...in all thy getting, get understanding”.

2. God's word must unfold in the heart.

The word of God must grow in a person until it is internalised. “So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.” (Acts 19:20). The word of God must grow in a person before it can prevail. Embrace the spoken word and process it by talking about it, confessing it, and it will become spirit and life as it activates faith. Your level of victory is directly proportional to the level of the word of God that is activated in you. In Psalm 17:4-5, David testified that he was kept from the destroyer by the words of God. The word of God must dwell in you richly. The word of God is spirit, and therefore you cannot access the spirit of God without the word of God. Engage the word, and consequently, you will discern the enemy. Without the thermometer of the word, you cannot measure the enemy.

3. Pray without ceasing.

The prayer that will overcome is ceaseless prayer. The devil does not go on holiday, so a Christian who engages in part-time prayers cannot defeat a full-time devil. There is a devil to fight at every level of life, so anyone who must succeed and sustain success must always be ready to fight at whatever level or stage of life. We must be aware that we wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities and powers, which are restless spirits. And if indeed we wrestle, then we cannot rest but pray without ceasing.

Every Christian is expected to be an agent of the supernatural. However, not many Christians understand or manifest the supernatural. The missing link is prayers. Prayer is central to supernatural manifestations in every area of life on earth. As long as the things seen are made out of those that cannot be seen, we must depend on the unseen to sustain the seen with progressive ideas and results in the seen world.

Albeit we have an adversary, the devil who has come to steal, kill, and destroy, we continue to resist him consistently through prayers for the will of God is established on earth as it is in heaven. We must not forget that we can only fight the enemy and succeed to the extent of our submission to God. We must desire to engage the word until the light dawns. John, writing to the church, says that the one who is in you is greater than the one in the world (1 John 4:4). Stay focused, stay vigilant, continually seek the face of God in prayers, and you will undoubtedly encounter the supernatural. May God be your guide as He will only guard those he guides.

THE NYAMHAMB A FAMILY

As a young father who had been blessed with the birth of his first son in August 2018, I was happy. Everything was going along very well at home. While I have always known that life comes with challenges in every season, I wasn't expecting the kind of challenges like those that awaited me in the final quarter of that year. I had no reason whatsoever to complain.

My son was born on the 6th of October 2018 and a few months later while I was showering, I had an unfortunate incident whereby the inner membrane in the cornea of my right eye ruptured whilst showering. It almost felt like an arrow had been shot into my eye and I felt a very stinging pain that was uncomfortable. I was confused as to what had happened and

I knew that something wasn't right. By the grace of God, due to the nature of my wife's profession and work with optometrists, she sent them a photo of my eye and they advised me to go to see an eye specialist. The eye specialist confirmed the news that my cornea had become very thin to a point where the inner membrane had ruptured. Water had gone into a part that it's not meant to go into.

There would have been a real possibility of blindness in my right eye had I not acted. But to the glory of God, the Lord raised a standard against such a diabolic attack.

I was prescribed eye drops to manage the pain and aid the recovery of that rupture. The specialist informed me that my right eye needed to undergo a procedure that required a lot of mental and spiritual courage as they would replace a part of my cornea that had scarred with another person's cornea, which I had never heard of being done before. It was a shock and a surprise but in all of it, I still believed and trusted God. I never murmured and I never shook in my faith. I still always stood on Christ, the solid rock. It was also of immense value having my wife very much supportive in these trying times. Despite this, I kept putting off the surgical procedure as I was still seeking direction from the Lord as to the timing. I wanted to feel mentally prepared for such a procedure. Everything had been fully explained to me and I understood what I was going for.

Just a little over a year later, Prophet Richard Amoaye whom I call Papa came for a conference in Perth. I didn't tell him up until the very last day that I was going for a procedure that involved my eye. He prayed over me, and he declared some powerful words over me. By the grace of God that flows through him, the surgery went well on the 10th of December 2019. As I underwent this procedure, I was deeply encouraged by Joshua 1:9, which reads: "Have I not commanded thee be strong and of good courage, be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed for the Lord thy God is with thee with so ever thou goest". That scripture was my anchor in that season, and it was always with me.

It was going to be a very long recovery journey as an eye does not possess blood veins as some of the other body parts do. From that date in December 2019 up to May 2021, I was on my recovery journey. I prayed and declared healing scriptures according to the Word of God. I meditated deeply, my faith was strong and I was rooted like a tree by streams of water. Nothing could contaminate my faith in God.

I was very uncomfortable, and it was excruciatingly painful. I was conscious not to make both my wife and my son worry about my eye because it wasn't a pleasant experience. In May 2021, they had to then remove the stitches because they had been there for that long. After my stitches were removed, everything went smoothly, everything went well. I was going for regular check-ups and to the glory of God I never received any bad report. The transplant had gone according to plan. To clarify about the procedure; it was a partial cornea transplant from someone else's eye to my own eye and God still made a way where there seemed to be no way.

I flew in just for a few hours and I was on a flight back to Perth first thing the next morning, I think by 7:08 a.m.

At the beginning of December 2021, my ophthalmologist confirmed that my eye was completely healed. There was no need for me to attend any further appointments.

During that season, I learnt a lot about my walk with God. I still leaned on him and

In fact, after my surgery on the 10th of December 2019, I remember Papa rang me just after Christmas or just before Christmas asking me to come to Sydney for the cross over service. Papa said, "Son, it would be good if you can come to Sydney for the cross over service and by faith in Christ I went just for a few hours to Sydney from Perth. Only a few people were aware I was coming. People were surprised to see me. My right eye was bloodshot and it's not something I could just explain to anyone randomly. I showed Papa my eye and I said, "Papa, at first, I wanted to say bye, you know, I can't come. My in-laws are literally coming to Perth the day before crossover service. I was trying to wiggle my way out of it." By the grace of God, Papa prayed for me and the ministrations that evening was very powerful.

Accessing The Supernatural

Pandemics, epidemics and catastrophes have come and gone. The human race will always face some form of predicament. During biblical times, there were many instances of pandemics which shook the world.

BY BEVERLY KAVIYA

In the bible we read about God doing the impossible. We know the story of Abraham and Sarah who were not able to have a child and He blessed them with a child in their old age. We know the story of how He parted The Red Sea and delivered the Israelites out of Egypt. We know that He raised Lazarus from the dead after he had been dead for 3 days. We know that Jesus multiplied bread and fish that fed over Five thousand people. There are so many miracles in the bible alone that show us the kind of God we serve. He did not stop doing the impossible back then. He is still doing the impossible in our lives today and our job is to demonstrate that the reality that exists in Heaven can be manifested in this world. We are called to be people who put the works of God on display, expressing them and causing others to also believe it.

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” - Acts 1:8

The supernatural realm is a dimension that operates above the natural laws. It is invisible, eternal and is outside of time. This realm exercises dominion over the natural realm. God dwells in the supernatural realm. This realm has power to change things in the natural realm which we live in. When God intervenes and alters the course of normal life, we call that a miracle. Miracles can be dazzling and dramatic, but they are not primarily designed to dazzle us. God gives us miracles to train us how to see differently and not be limited in our thinking to the natural realm. To remind us that though we are in this world we are not of this world.

He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted - Job 5:9

The key and currency to accessing the supernatural realm is faith. Faith is a core part to having a relationship with God. As Christians, we call ourselves believers which means those who have faith. When walking with God we must be prepared for divine encounters that cannot be explained by our natural laws and mind. When we try to handle supernatural situations with a worldly mindset, we limit God. If we surrender to the worldly realities of this natural realm to try understanding or make sense of the supernatural activities, we will end up doubting God's power. The only way to understand the supernatural realm is through revelation by the Holy Spirit and Faith gives us the ability to see and believe beyond human reason.

While we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Corinthians 4:18

Everything that God created has a specific purpose, God never creates or does anything randomly. When ignore the purpose of something we abuse its function. God gave us His power for purposes that are directly linked to the advancement of His Kingdom. He has given us the tools we need to succeed in this realm and fulfill our purposes. He gave us Grace, the undeserved gift of God's supernatural power that helps us do more than our human capabilities and merits. In order to operate in the supernatural, we need to change our mindsets. The Holy Spirit gives us revelations that shape our minds to be able to move in the supernatural realm.

Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. - Romans 12:2

One of the most fascinating moments I encountered was reading the story of God stopping the sun for Joshua and his army to get victory in the war. The sun stopped in the middle of the sky and delayed going down. What drew me to this story wasn't the miracle but understanding that Joshua spoke, and God acted. God has power and our words give the power of God authority in our lives. Therefore, it is important for us to pray and speak to God. Joshua had Faith that God could do the impossible and he requested of God something his natural mind knew wasn't possible however he stepped into the supernatural by faith and the impossible happened.

On the day the Lord gave the Amorites over to Israel, Joshua said to the Lord in the presence of Israel: "Sun, stand still over Gibeon, and you, moon, over the Valley of Aijalon." So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, till the nation avenged itself on its enemies, Joshua 10:12-13

I was scrolling on Instagram recently and came across a quote that read "Do not tell God how big your problems are but rather tell your problems how big your God is" sometimes we are faced with challenges in life that seem daunting, and it may seem like there is no way out. But faith will help us access the supernatural realm to get the weapons and resources we need to overcome things in the natural realm. Faith is the passport to the unseen eternal realm. We serve a God that has done wonders and miracles over the years and still does today. Most of us believe that about God, we have read and heard about it. But we don't believe that he will do it for us because we do not consider ourselves worthy of His Divine power. But we couldn't be further from the truth. We do not deserve it; we are not worthy but by His Grace we have been called and chosen and we can, and we will achieve anything for we have the power of God in us.

Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." (Matthew 19:26)
